Inclusion Includes College

"...a model of hope, risk, opportunity and dreams"
Paula Kluth, PhD

Winner of the 2006 TASH Image Award for the Positive Portrayal of People with Disabilities

This inspiring film documents the new movement of fully inclusive education for students with cognitive disabilities on college campuses. As a high school student, Micah wanted the college experience and he got it. See how it is done, learn how it works, and witness how Micah's journey challenges us all to reexamine what we believe possible.

"The video shows us living breathing inclusion in action. A must-see for all students, teachers, and parents. I plan to show it in my courses to deepen their commitment to inclusion. Thank you for making this film. We need it." Mara Sapon-Shevin, Syracuse University, Widening the Circle: The Power of Inclusive Classrooms.

"This is a very moving video about a young man with his family's support and vision living life to its fullest with considerable challenges. Micah and his parents and teachers show the rest of us how possible and wonderful inclusion done with the proper supports can be. I watched this twice soaking up the wisdom and warm feelings and getting a vision of kinder, gentler world that values each and every person." Robert Naseef, *Special Children, Challenged Parents: The Struggles and Rewards of Raising a Child with a Disability.
